Nurse Aide Training (CNA)

Overview

You can be on your way to a new career in one of the fastest growing health care fields in less than five months. The Nurse Aide Training program at Mildred Elley has been designed to prepare students to work as a Certified Nurse Aide (CNA). Certified Nurse Aides (CNAs) work in nursing homes and hospitals under the direction and supervision of registered nurses (RNs) and licensed practical nurses (LPNs), as well as other medical staff.

CNAs have a great deal of contact with patients and provide personal care such as bathing, feeding, and dressing. They also perform support functions such as transporting patients, measuring vital signs like blood pressure and temperature, and helping patients become ambulatory.

You must successfully complete the Nurse Aide Training program and pass a NY State exam, to become a Certified Nurse Aide (CNA).

What You’ll Learn

Mildred Elley’s Nurse Aide Training program prepares you for the certification exam which includes a clinical skills exam and a written or oral exam.

This program covers basic core content needed to provide personal care for the elderly and patient care for those in nursing homes and hospitals.

The program is designed to be completed in 16 weeks and is conveniently scheduled one day a week. The first 12 weeks are in the classroom and final 4 weeks are on-the-job training at a clinical site. All classes are taught by experienced nursing faculty and the clinical site is a top-rated facility.

In addition, Mildred Elley’s skills lab provides you with the most real-world and technical learning environment possible so you are better prepared for your career when entering the workforce.
