

Online Course Checklist

Must Have:

- Consistent access to a computer (not a smartphone or tablet)
- Consistent access to high speed internet
- Textbooks for the course
- Network username and password to access online course at eLearn/Moodle (This is what you use to log into computers on campus)
- TIME - You need just as much time to complete your work for an online course as you would for a course offered on campus.

Must Do:

- Log into your online course the first day of the mod. You will have work due at the end of the first week - don't wait!
- Find your instructor. Find their contact information.
- Read the syllabus carefully
- Read the Course Introduction carefully (There will either be a Course Introduction box or this information will be on the top of the main page of your course)
- If your course uses Connect, register your textbook through the link next to the green puzzle piece on the main page of the course.
- Read the make-up work and late work policies in the course syllabus carefully
- Read through the information provided in the Technical Assistance section of your course to see who to go to when you need help.
- Go into the Week 1 box and get started!

Must Know:

- You will have work due every week, just like an on campus course
- You must regularly check your Mildred Elley email for communication from your instructor and online support staff. If you do not check your student email, you will miss important information!
- The Technical Assistance section at the bottom of the main page of your course has a variety of help documents and videos to help you be successful in your online course. Check it out!
- If you are having any issues completing your work, email your instructor immediately.
- If you need your log in credentials to access your online course email support1@mildred-elley.edu
- If you need help navigating your online course or figuring out how to submit your work, email lrobinson@mildred-elley.edu or mwedderburn@mildred-elley.edu
